

Strongfit Singapore Pte Ltd

[Personal Data Collection]

Under Part II of the Advisory Guidelines on the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 ("PDPA") for NRIC and Other National Identification Numbers (issued by the PDPC on 31 August 2018), organisations are generally not allowed to collect, use or disclose NRIC numbers except, for example, where it is necessary to accurately verify the identity of the individual to a high degree of fidelity.

In order to deliver the following services requested by the participant, StrongfitSingapore will collect and use personally identifiable information including name, NRIC number, email address, home address, telephone number and where necessary bank account number. StrongfiSingapore will, use such personally identifiable information for the purposes of, and incidental to the participant's receipt of services, updating their attendance, Events records, etc.